FRAMINGHAM COUNTRY CLUB

"With roots dating back to the early 1890's, Framingham Country Club was incorporated in 1902 on the former William Temple Farm. FCC was modernized in the early 1930's by legendary golf course architect Donald Ross with an additional nine holes being added in 1957. Final changes were made by Geoffrey Cornish in the mid 1960's. The result is a challenging member's course that acts as a competitive venue for many state amateur events. FCC is a true hidden gem located twenty miles west of Boston , MA"
