Loblolly's hallmark as a "Modern Classic" is defined by its wonderful variety of famous hole look-a-likes, combined with its more recent architectural renditions. #8 @ 540 yds. has two forced carries over gaping ponds to reach home safely, and its aura is that of Sawingale's #15. Giving the second rise, #10 is a delectably short par 3 over a watererie to a small forested green behind a military grave, and this is a superb copy of Pine Valley's "Devils Area" hole. #15 plays and looks much like the 6th at Seminole and then there is "Calamity". The 9th @ 196 yds. is almost an exact replica of Porton's historic 14th "Calamity Corner". Perhaps, #13 is Loblolly's own masterpiece @ 269 yds, this short par 4 forces the long hitter to "Go For It", and more often than not... #13 wins. The Course is a true test from the golf gods. It punts one out of one's discipline, and around the green, if you miss on the wrong side! 3-5-4-5-9-10-15-16-18 the course wants the player to take at least 3 clubs down to hit the shot—you must make a decision.
