

PRESTWICK GOLF CLUB

Birthplace of the Open
1851

Prestwick Golf Club was founded in 1851. The original 12 holes were laid out by Old Tom Morris and in 1860 the first ever Open Championship was played over 3 rounds of the famous links and won by Willie Park. The course was extended to 18 holes in 1882 and held the last of its 24 Open Championships in 1925.
