Inverness Club has a distinguished history, as storied as the legendary players and historic games that have graced its grounds. Since 1903 Inverness Club has welcomed golfers from around the world. Inverness has hosted eight major championships since 1920- U S Opens in 1920-Ted Ray; 1931-Billy Burke (longest playoff in history of Open) ; 1957 Dick Mayer; 1979 Hale Irwin; 1973 US Amateur- Craig Stadler; 1935-1952 PGA Fourball Championship; 1986 PGA-Bob Tway; 1993 Paul Azinger and the 2003 U S Senior Open- Bruce Lietzke and in 2011, again, the U S Senior Open. Its length at 7345 is deceptive as there are many carry shots required to the par 4's and the greens that accept the shot offer little relief.
