Truly one of the great course routes in golf, Dye's Long Cove suggests to the golfer that one must use every club in the bag. Nobody could pick the noblest course in America without having played Long Cove. It fits the land that is there. The course flows seamlessly through dense stands of hardwoods and coastal wetlands and progresses from one serene setting to the next. It is a true test of concentration and shot making. The par 3's, #2-8-13 & 17 offer 4 separate opportunities at par and #3, the par 5 of 539 yards, offers one of the great par 5 routes in golf. Championship golf at its very best!
