The 465 yard 4th

Pacific Dunes opened in 2001. It is remarkably different in character and shot making requirements. It does not feel like it was built as much as it was discovered. Rippling fairways remain just as they were formed and natural bunkers line the landscape as they have for centuries. The course emerges from shore pines to spectacular 60-foot sand dunes. When the wind blows, precise approach shots are a necessity. Pacific Dunes is short enough to give you hope, but rugged enough to test every facet of ones' game.
