Lookout Mountain was built in 1925 by Seth Raynor with the idea that there would be a "links course on a mountain top" and there is, a great one at that. Hole after hole offers the golfer a great challenge on each drive and approach and then the putting must be sharp. Uniquely, there are no par 5's on the front 9 with the longest hole being the opener @443 yards and then the back nine features #10 "Cape" @567 yards as it bends and curves from right to left. The par 3's are the hallmark of Raynor designs and Lookout Mountain is not different in having, #4 "Biarritz" @224 yards, #6 "Short" @126 yards, #13 "Redan" @203 yards and #16 "Eden" @170yards.
