"Bunkers that express flair and instill fear"

Old Memorial is a pure, undisturbed sanctuary of golf, with a mixture of subtle and bold contours. Its primary design feature is its bunkering, large and beautifully sculpted, the bunkers have sand faces with long grass fingers that give them the appearance of a series of smaller bunkers. Unlike water hazards, bunkers are often just a quarter or a half-shot penalty and recovery is always possible. Architect Steve Smyers' bunkers are dramatic, sweeping hollows of sand that intimidate, deceive, direct play and frame the course's landing areas and greens. Often, they make holes look more difficult than they really are. Not since MacKenzie or Tillinghast has a golf course architect used bunkering to make such bold statements, express such flair, instill such fear.
